Minister Denies That Any Such Accident Occurred.

CONVICT'S BODY IN WOODS

White Boy Who Confessed to Burning of Oil Warehouse Believed to Be Insane.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALDIGH, N. C., August 1.-Rev, Livngston Johnston, corresponding secratary to the North Carolina Baptist Convention, returned to-day from Davis Shore, and says the special that has been sent out from there that a boy, Sutton Davis, had been seized and eaten in the surf while bathing is a fake out of the whole cloth. That no such accident has occurred, and the people of that section are at a loss to imagine who could have sent out such a report.

The penitentiary authorities announce that the dead body of George Collins, the negro convict who made a dash for liberty at the convict camp near Lillington ast Friday, has been found in the woods about two hundred yards from the scene of the shooting. The guards reported that they thought the two shots they fired at the fleeing convict had taken effect, but nothing could be found of the wounded

It was about noon yesterday that the body of the convict was found. He was serving two years for larceny, being sent up from Northampton county.

Very few people believe that there is anything much in the cases worked up here as to the burning of the office and warchouse of the Standard Oll Company here. Frank Moore, a young white man here, whose people claim that he is insane, has confessed to detectives that he and Earle Jones, a white boy about his own age, together with two negroes, killed the night watchman, David Strickland, and cracked the safe and burned the place.

Moore's father says he is convinced that the confession is an insane freak of the boy, who has talked several times of wishing he had the reward of $1.200 offered for the parties who committed the crime. Moore, Jones and one of the negroes, Burk Burch, are arrested and in Jail, their trial being set for next Saturday. The other negro is George Williams, who is still at large.

Earle Jones is now under arrest in Norfolk for some minor offense, and will be turned over to the North Carolina authorities. Much interest is being maniested in the case.

Moore's father says he is convinced

BRIDE OF THREE MONTHS

KILLED BY A TRAIN (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August i.—At Manchester, a small station one mile this side of Rockhill, Mrs. R. P. Carnes, wife of a mill employe of the Manchester Mills, was instantly killed by a train this morning at a curve of the railroad, where a foot-path crossed. D. A. McAillater, the engineer, states that he saw the woman some distance before the train reached the crossing, and that she saw the train, first stopping to let it pass and then starting to, cross, when he was about fifty to seventy-five feet from her, and his train going at the rate of about fifty miles an hour. She was twenty-two years of age, and a bride of three months.

IN HOT PURSUIT. John Richards Escapes By the

Help of His Brother. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FLOYD, VA., August 1.—John Richards, who assassinated Maurice Frances, was seen, accompanied by his brother, at Ferrum, in Frankin county, early Monday morning. He sent his brother in a store to get somethings to eat, while he stood guard outside and watched. They left the store, but did not take the train, and were seen later at Henry Station, on the Roanoke and Southern. The detectives are in hot pursuit.

not pursuit.

The coroner's jury have not completed their investigation. The opinion is that Richards is the guilty man, though his character and conduct have heretofore been good.
